Vigilance Combats
Man's Ancient Enemy
BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The rat has been man's enemy since prehistoric times to 22 young in a litter. Their persistence in our communities has resulted from indifference and tolerance due largely to lack of public knowledge of their dangerous and destructive potentials.

Many seizures of grain and other foods by the Food and Drug Administration are made because of contamination by rodents. By gnawing electric cables rats may cause short circuiting and fires.

In addition to this rats help to disseminate such dread scourges as bubonic plague, rat bite fever, dysentery and typhus. They breed several times a year and produce 6

Charter members of the Chapter presented a Founder's Day Program and recalled the organizational meeting of 19 years ago. This proved to be most interesting. The official colors of the P. E. Youth Asked For It!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help US!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help US! this newspaper.

Don't Juge All By A Few!

Dear Helen: I was at a basketball game recently which was a disgrace to all adults. Towards the end of the game the other team was winning by ten points and some men started chanting, "Game's all over!" I doubt that anything could have been more crushing, especially to the Seniors since this was their last game. Kids wouldn't do that!

I have come to the conclusion that adults aren't so great. Some nerve they've got, telling teens how rotten they are all the time! But they do have to keep up their image of being supreme, don't they? — Peeved

Dear Peeved: "Don't judge all by a few" is the teen theme song. Aren't you guilty of the same thing? "all" adults aren't rude and crude, any more than all teens are J.D.'s. It only seems that way to observers because the do-righters seldom get noticed. — H.

Dear Helen: Girls often complain that when boys go out on dates with them, especially when we are taking them home we don't show much affection. I finally asked the girl I like to go to the movies with me and she accepted. I am puzzled about how she expects me to act. I planned to kiss her goodnight but I am afraid she would think this is too little. I don't want to lose out with her. What is the normal showing of affection between a teenage girl and boy? — Clito Kid

Dear Clito: A good rule on almost everything is: "When in doubt—don't!" Your girl will like you better if you make her wait a while for that good-night kiss. — H.

Personal To "Friend of a Rat-Fink": Don't expect honor from a partner in "crime." When the heat is on, he'll come clean about your dirty work — and then you'll both learn it's a lot easier to tell the truth. — H.

Of Shoes And Dogs And Garbage Cans.

Dear Helen: I love my mother dearly, but she doesn't love dogs, and I do — I'm going to be a vet. Our own dog — okay. But there is a poor, big, bony, "scraggly," sad-eyed, lop-tailed dog that upsets our garbage can. She throws old shoes and bricks at him. Fortunately she misses, but maybe someday she won't.

Please take sides with the poor animals, and me. They were made by the same kind hand that made all living creatures and have as much right to live as any of us. How can I make my Mother think so? — Sad Animal Lover

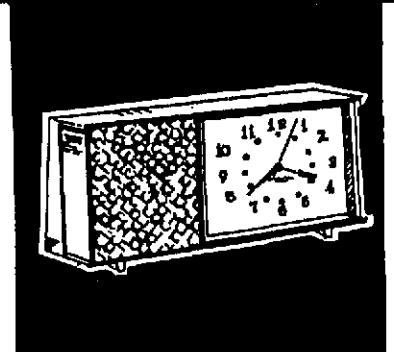

Dear Sad: Honey, if your mother's aim is like all female she'll never connect with Rover — even if she really wanted to, which she doesn't.

I'll take you side on one condition: You trot out and clean up the garbage each time the sad-eyed mutt comes calling.

P.S. Has you mom tried dog repellent, weighing the lid down with a heavy rock or complaining to the owner — who may be breaking a city ordinance whenever he lets his dog roam free? — H.

Dear Helen: Do men fear clever women? I'm 13 and I'm writing a book. Boys seem to avoid me, maybe because they fear I'll put them in my book. But how can I write about my thrilling experiences if boys won't act like they should? — Novelist

It has been estimated that over the United States about 43 million tons of dust settle each year. Of this, 31 million tons is from natural sources, including 1 million tons of pollen. The rest is caused by human activities. In sections with the heaviest industrialization as much as 200 tons per square mile have fallen. In Detroit, Mich., measurements of 72 tons of dust per square mile per month have been taken.

Bill anticipated this possibility and shifted to the king of clubs. A low club was played from dummy whereupon Ginny made the best of her hand and signaled come-on with her nine spot. Bill continued with the queen of clubs.

Don Sutton
New Star for the Dodgers

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Don (Little D) Sutton looks like he's ready to challenge Don Drysdale for the Big D label — both on the mound and at the plate.

A 21-year-old right-hander in only his second year of professional baseball, Sutton emphasized his rapid development Wednesday night when he posted the first complete game of his major league career in the Los Angeles Dodgers' 4-1 victory over Atlanta.

Sutton's place with the Dodgers remained questionable because of his inexperience until Drysdale and Sandy Koufax went into their holdout routine during spring training. Manager Walt Alston looked at Sutton's minor league record, and then decided to look at the real thing. "He hasn't been disappointed."

"Sutton has improved every start," said Alston after the 6-foot-1, 185-pounder checked the Braves on five hits and struck out 10 while walking only one. "Right now he's the fourth best starter on the staff."

Sutton, however, may be after bigger things.

He's already posted two victories, and also is stealing some of Drysdale's hitting thunder. Big D was the Dodgers' leading hitter last year but Little D collected two hits against the Braves and now is No. 1 on the club with six hits in 13 at-bats for a .464 average.

Drysdale is winless and hitless.

Pinch-Hitter Gives White Sox Victory

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Smoky Burgess, the catcher who could pass for one of those paunchy movie bartenders, doesn't worry about the tools of ignorance lugged around by most receivers.

Burgess lugs around only one tool—his bat.

And he used it Wednesday delivering a two-run pinch single that helped the Chicago White Sox to an 8-6 victory over Boston.

A burly 39-year-old veteran, Burgess stands 5-foot-8 and weighs 192 pounds—most of it centrally located. He doesn't look the part but he happens to be the most prolific pinch hitter in baseball history. That's why the White Sox let the other guys wear the shin guards and chest protectors.

Everytime Burgess delivers a pinch hit, he adds to his major league record. Wednesday's pinch hit was his third this season and the 118th of his 17-year major league career. It helped the Sox to their 9th victory in 12 starts.

In the only other American League game played Wednesday, Washington blanked New York 2-0 on Mike McCormick's five-hitter. The other games on the schedule were postponed because of rain and cold.

In the National League Cincinnati downed San Francisco 6-6. Houston defeated St. Louis 3-1 and Los Angeles whipped Atlanta 4-1.

Chicago broke a 5-5 tie in the seventh inning on two walks and a single by Ron Hansen. Then Burgess stroked his single and while he was chugging down the first base line, Ken Berry scored from third and Hansen took off from first and raced home with the Sox' third run of the inning.

McCormick, who was a $50,000 bonus boy with the New York Giants a decade ago, and won the National League earned run crown in 1960, is making a comeback as a Yankee-killer.

The shutout extended McCormick's streak to 21 scoreless innings against the one time Bombers, who have now lost 12 of 14 starts.

Treat Mom on Her Day

DAD'S SPECIAL LONDON BROIL will delight Mom.

Here's a family switch—the men of the family prepare the special Mother's Day dinner, instead of the daughters. So many husbands are now barbecue cooks and so many young sons are learning how to broil meats outdoors, mother can be sure the dinner in her honor will be as good, or almost as good, as though she did it herself.

But before father and son don kitchen aprons, it is a wise mother who leaves out a supply of paper plates and cups for the occasion. She knows that even the most loving of husbands and sons don't like the cleaning-up job afterward. That's where sturdy paper steak platters, matching paper cups and plates come in—they solve the dishwashing and cleaning up problem, and keep everyone happy on Mother's Day.

DAD'S SPECIAL LONDON BROIL

(Serves 4)

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup safflower or corn oil
3 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup steak catsup
 $\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup grated onion
 $2\frac{1}{2}$ pound flank steak*

To make marinade, combine all ingredients except flank steak. Beat with a wire whisk or shake well to blend flavors. Trim excess fat from meat. Pour marinade over meat and refrigerate for several hours or overnight. Remove meat from marinade and broil to desired degree or doneness. (About 7 minutes for rare.)

Other cuts of beef are now called "London Broil." They are so marked in meat case and can be used in this recipe instead of flank steak.

Olives Season Ground Lamb in Meat Loaf

A good way to vary menus is to serve a different kind of meat, maintains Reba Staggs, meat authority. With slightly increased supplies of lamb available, this would be a good time for lamb loaf.

Seasonings for this meat loaf are different from those used for beef. There are mashed potatoes, first of all, which might be leftovers. The instant variety may also be used.

Sliced, stuffed green olives throughout the loaf will contribute a novel flavor and texture to this loaf. They're combined with catchup and leaf oregano.

Lamb and Olive Loaf
2 pounds ground lamb
 $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups mashed potatoes
1 cup milk
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped onion
2 eggs, slightly beaten
2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon pepper
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon leaf oregano
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup stuffed green olives, sliced
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup catchup

Combine potatoes, milk and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt. Add lamb and remaining ingredients and mix thoroughly. Pack in a 9 x 5-inch loaf pan. Bake in a slow oven (325° F.) 1½ hours. 8 servings.

Apple Custard Pie Without Baking

APPLE CUSTARD PIE doesn't require baking.

Here is one more convenience food to simplify spring time in the kitchen—a new packaged egg custard mix. The mix is blended with milk and cooked on top of the range in as little as six minutes. For pies, the prepared mix is cooled slightly and then poured into a baked crust, ready-to-eat as soon as it sets.

APPLE CUSTARD PIE
1 package (2½ oz.) egg custard mix
 $1\frac{3}{4}$ cups milk
1 baked 9-inch pie shell, cooled
2 cups thin apple slices
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar
1 tablespoon water
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon cinnamon
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon nutmeg
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon grated lemon rind

3 tablespoons gingersnap
crumbs

Combine custard mix and milk in a saucepan. Bring quickly to a boil, stirring constantly. Mixture will be thin. Cool 15 minutes, stirring often. Pour into crust. Chill 1 hour.

Meanwhile, combine apple slices, sugar, water, spices and lemon rind. Bring to a boil and simmer about 10 minutes or until apples are tender. Cool slightly. Sprinkle gingersnap crumbs over filling. Pour or arrange apple slices over crumbs as glaze. Chill 2 hours longer or until filling is completely set.

Black Friday

Sept. 24, 1869, is known as "Black Friday" in reference to an attempt by financiers Gould and Fisk to corner the gold market that resulted in complete panic in Wall Street.

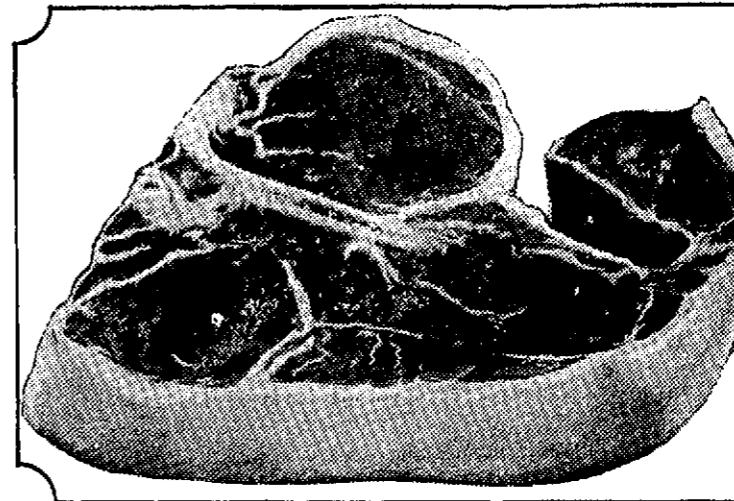

LOOKOUTS—It might be Viet Nam, but it's actually Washington state where Indian fishing customs have run afoul of government restrictions. These two are standing guard for defiant tribesmen who stretched nets across the Columbia River.

How Labor Laws Circumvent Free Press

There's hardly a reader of The Star who doesn't know that if state censorship and a dictator come to America they will be contrived by devious means which a Philadelphia lawyer will explain away as being perfectly legal. But history nevertheless will call it what it is: The death of freedom of speech and press, and the birth of a dictatorship.

In some respects a military dictatorship is more forthright and honorable than the scheming politicians of a decadent and failing republic grabbing for power just before the crash.

At least a military dictator makes no bones about what he is doing. He closes down the newspapers and jails or shoots the citizen who is unwise enough to speak against him.

But the power-mad politicians of a republic are more devious when they set about ruling without the consent of the people. They wouldn't think about telling an editor what he can and can not print. They wouldn't dream of turning soldiers loose against outspoken citizens in the street.

The enemies of a republic are more devious. They simply pass laws and pack courts to interpret laws to their liking so it will be impossible to print newspapers. And without newspapers the people are uninformed and helpless.

Of course the people would still have radio and television — but these operate under government license even while government yet goes through the pretense of holding elections; and under dictatorship they will go off the air — but suddenly.

Only the press, privately owned and clear of licensing restrictions, is free to print all the facts and to criticize. And while it remains free so will radio and television remain free, for any attempt to penalize them at license-renewal time would bring instant retaliation in print. The censor who moves against one is the enemy of all — while the press remains free.

But there are ominous signs for the press. New York City's newspapers have been struck three times in the last few years. Five of the seven dailies had lost money for years. Each strike weakened them further, and Hearst's Daily Mirror folded, cutting the field to six.

Currently two big losers, the Hearst Journal-American and Scripps-Howard's World Telegram, are proposing to merge in a single afternoon edition, reducing the field to five — but the merger is blocked by a strike of the International Typographical Union.

What kind of laws and what kind of courts do we tolerate when private enterprise no longer has the right to cut losses by merging or going out of business?

Trade unionism for the improvement of wages and working conditions is one thing — but the New York picture has overtones of conspiracy and dictatorship.

Remember my warning? Power-mad politicians in a republic won't openly censor a free press — they'll just make it physically impossible to publish. The political job has been done in New York.

Am I distrustful of government in these United States?

Am I hostile toward lawmakers and bureaucrats?

What would you expect?

I am undeceived by official jerks whose law-English I can parse any old time for its true and sinister meaning.

I am an editor.

Pirate Radio Broadcasters Multiplying

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — Pirate radio stations, operating off the British mainland, are to be joined by two new ones that threaten to operate around the clock.

The new buccaneers are Radio England and Britain Radio. Both are expected to broadcast from the same ship, the 480-ton Patricia anchored outside territorial waters off the Essex coast.

The new pirates are reported to have transmitters with a joint power of 110,000 watts.

McClellan to Speak on Forestry

LITTLE ROCK — The timber industry in Arkansas marks another milestone, Friday, April 29, with the dedication of the state's 1500th Tree Farm. Approximately 1,000 are expected to attend the ceremonies to be held six miles south of Malvern on timberlands owned by Harry Hunter, Arkadelphia pulpwood dealer.

Highlights of the morning activities will be a talk by U.S. Senator John L. McClellan paying tribute to the tree farm system. Chairman of the State Tree Farm Committee Armin T. Dressel, Amity, will present the 1500th certificate and tree farm sign to Harry Hunter.

Most unions, state officials and other railroads applauded the unanimous ruling Wednesday by the Interstate Commerce Commission — ICC — that turned two of the nation's rail giants into one in history's largest corporate merger.

Unless legal action is taken to block the consolidation, which had been sought for five years, the two systems are free to unify beginning June 1.

In an effort to insure no job losses from the merger, the ICC ruled the system may not reduce its work force without showing a 5 per cent business drop in any 30-day period.

Another condition imposed on the merged railroad is that it assume operation of the freight and passenger service of the deficit-ridden New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad through 1966. It said the New Haven could not abandon the bulk of its passenger service.

In another action, the commission rejected by a 6-5 vote the merger of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroads. The decision against creation of a 25,000-mile system linking the Midwest to the Pacific drew bitter opposition statements from four commissioners and faces the challenge in the courts.

The new Pennsylvania New York Central Transportation Co., with total assets of more than $4 billion, will be the form of a 20,000-mile system stretching from St. Louis and Chicago to Montreal and Washington.

The ICC said the merger would enable the railroads to save $80 million annually after 1974 and that the public would benefit either by improved service or lower rates.

WASHINGTON

House Democrats writing new antipoverty legislation decide to boost President Johnson's money request by $25 million and put more emphasis on job training programs.

By a one-vote margin, the Senate approves funds for President Johnson's program of rent subsidies for low-income families that threaten to operate around the clock.

In rejecting the merger plans of the Northern lines, the ICC majority ruling said the individual lines are prospering and had failed to show that their proposed merger would improve service by eliminating competition.

WASHINGTON

U.S. officials hope to turn the tide of war decisively against the Communist forces in South Viet Nam by early next year.

Sen. J.W. Fulbright hangs a "very dangerous" label on the administration's "no sanctuaries" policy, but Sen. Everett M. Dirksen says he does not believe it invites Red Chinese intervention in the courts.

By EDDY GILMORE

Chinese Cool Over War in Viet Nam

EDITOR'S NOTE — This article on Viet Nam and China was brought out of the Communist mainland by a British author who, unlike American reporters, had a chance to visit there. The Associated Press asked him to write of what he found.

By FRANK TUOHY

HANGCHOW, China, (AP) — Here in China, people are surprisingly lukewarm about the war in Viet Nam. I assume this is the official point of view, because official views are all the visiting foreigner gets.

Yet the Chinese certainly want foreigners to think they are ready for war. Take, for example, the curious goings-on outside my Nanking hotel.

Early on a Sunday morning — and Sunday is a rest day in China as in other countries — gangs of blue-clad girls were dragging in truckloads of earth from outside, and others were stamping it down on to a raised mound beyond some magnolia trees. I asked what all the girls were doing.

"They are building an air raid shelter."

I have seen some more air-raid shelters in China, but not many. The Nanking hotel one perplexes me still. Why build a shelter for the foreign guests of a tourist hotel? Why make such a show of it? Are foreigners supposed to believe that the Chinese expect war? And further, do the Chinese really fear war, or is the Central Committee merely using the threat to boost morale after recent reverses on the economic and diplomatic fronts?

The position with regard to the Vietnamese conflict is extraordinarily complex.

Posters and cartoons show cowardly GIs surrendering to Vietnamese soldiers. There is a Vietnamese martyr saint, Yuan Wen-ise, who was executed in October 1964 for allegedly attempting to blow up Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara at Saigon. I saw an interesting play about him on my last night in Peking.

At all films, concerts and operas I went to, the audience applauded nationalist sentiments, but this time there was no clapping until the final curtain. Furthermore, nowhere in China have I seen a picture of Ho Chi Minh, and everyone is extremely cautious on the question of support.

A very intelligent and neutral Vietnamese journalist I know was told in one factory: Viet Nam is an incentive for us to increase our production."

She asked: "Do you mean to work hard in order to send your goods to North Viet Nam?"

"No, to help us encourage our workers to increase their productivity."

Almost the same words were used to me in a commune outside Canton. The group-mind of China was sure of this point.

Johnson's Rent Subsidy Bill Squeaks by Senate With One Vote to Spare

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — By a one-vote margin, the Senate has approved funds for President Johnson's program of rent subsidies for low-income families.

But the administration and its Senate leaders had to use all their resources to get the votes needed for Wednesday's 46-45 victory authorizing $12 million in contract authority for the new program.

After that vote, the Senate passed, 72-12 a $2.8 billion supplemental money bill that included the rent subsidies funds.

Republicans led the floor fight against the new administration program, declaring that it was poorly prepared and could cost the federal government $6 billion over the next 40 years.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen cried that the subsidies are "sure to become noxious in American life."

Democrats contended that the new plan could do a better job of providing good homes for low-income families than the present low-rent public housing programs.

The estimated subsidies of $40 a month for each family under the program would be less than the $50 which public housing now costs, they said.

A New Idea: Instead of Jailing Traffic Violator Tie Up His Automobile

By HAL COOPER

NEW YORK (AP) — When traffic laws are flouted, should the car be jailed instead of the driver?

Sounds like a great idea, road safety experts agreed in a survey today, but there's a snag: It wouldn't work.

For one thing, the experts pointed out, there isn't enough municipal storage space to accommodate even a fraction of the automobiles which would wind up in custody.

For another, hordes of workers depend on their cars for transportation and a serious breakdown of commerce and industry would threaten imminently.

A spokesman for automobile drivers was scornful. Said Samuel T. Milliken, manager of the Keystone-Philadelphia Automobile Club: "Put the car in jail? Sure, why not? Just convert all parking garages and lots into jailhouses. Swear in garage attendants as policemen. What matter if it slows the wheels of industry to a grinding halt?"

His proposal found few takers.

"It would be an administrative monstrosity," protested Traffic Inspector Joseph Haferly of the Philadelphia police department.

"In 1965 there were 165,000

East Java Volcano Is on Rampage

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — A volcanic eruption in heavily populated East Java has demolished one village and is threatening the town of Blitar, reports from the area said today.

The 5,678-foot volcano, Mt.

Kelut, erupted Monday night.

Nine persons have been reported killed so far, but the toll is considered certain to climb.

Civil defense and Red Cross officials in Jakarta, about 400 miles west of the area, have no details on casualties yet.

Antara, the official news agency, said the eruption wiped out the village of Bambulan, about two miles from the crater. It was not known how many persons lived there.

Civil defense officials said hot lava had reached the edge of

•3 Drown as North Dallas Is Flooded

By GARY GARRISON
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — At least three persons drowned and eight others were listed as missing today as rains flooded hundreds of persons from their homes in north Dallas.

Police and sheriff's officers said two persons drowned when the car they were in was washed off the road and they were unable to get out.

A woman was able to escape from another car, but a man was not when the auto the two were in submerged at a washed-out bridge, city police said.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said 4.35-inches of rain fell in the city between midnight and 4 a.m., and more rain was forecast.

Firemen working from boats plucked people from trees and rooftops. An appeal went out for owners of private boats to make them available to the rescue effort.

•Six of the missing were Dallas firemen, unreported since they went on two separate rescue missions. Two of these reportedly were swept away in a car by rushing waters.

The city's main northbound arterials were clogged with water, including Central Expressway, in which water was 5 feet deep in underpasses.

Police in suburban Garland said between 150 and 200 persons have been evacuated from an area surrounding Duck Creek, which runs almost into the center of the town.

His Decision Made, Orval Is Relaxed

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus flopped back in his swivel chair and grinned. "I guess they'll believe I'm out of it now," he said.

The Democratic gubernatorial primary ticket had closed without Faubus' name on it for the first time since 1952, and Faubus may have been the most relaxed politician in Arkansas.

Many doubted until the ticket closed that Faubus could keep his promise to stay out of the race. He had indicated until about three weeks ago that he might run again—for a seventh term—if the Democratic party failed to produce a candidate he considered capable of challenging Winthrop Rockefeller.

"We've got a good field," Faubus said. "I hope we've got a man who can beat Rockefeller. I will vote for and support the Democratic nominee, whoever he may be."

Eight men qualified in the Democratic primary. Rockefeller was opposed in the Republican primary by Gus McMillan of Sheridan. Many Republicans were saying that McMillan was put into the race by the Democrats to harass Rockefeller. The Democratic candidates are Jim Johnson, 41, of Conway; Sam Boyce, 34, of New- port; Kenneth Sulcer, 42, of Osceola, and Brooks Hays.

Frank Holt, Raymond Rebsamen, Dale Alford and Winston Chandler, all of Little Rock.

McMillan, a Democratic candidate for governor in 1954, switched parties last Saturday. He praised Faubus and attacked Rockefeller at a news conference when he filed Tuesday.

McMillan polled 18,000 votes in the 1954 primary and his votes forced Gov. Francis Cherry into a runoff with Faubus. He threw his support to Faubus in a runoff and Faubus won in his first statewide race.

Voters have returned him to office each two years since, once with 70 per cent of the primary election vote, once with only 52 per cent of it.

Faubus collected 57 per cent of the vote against Rockefeller in 1964 in the only real general election race of his career.

Faubus, now 56, was a virtual unknown when he filed against Cherry. He had been a county official in small, isolated Madison County. He had worked for the state as a governor's aide and highway director during the administration of Gov. Sid McMath.

Cherry's support for a 100 per cent property tax assessment and for pruning welfare rolls had made him unpopular and Faubus attacked him on these grounds. No one gave Faubus a chance until the votes were counted.

After winning an endorsement term in 1956 and pushing a $20 million tax increase program through the 1957 legislature, Faubus got help from the race issue for a successful third-term bid in 1958.

He had been criticized as a moderate on racial matters in the 1956 campaign but he won solid support of segregationists by using National Guard troops to temporarily block desegregation of Little Rock Central High School in 1957.

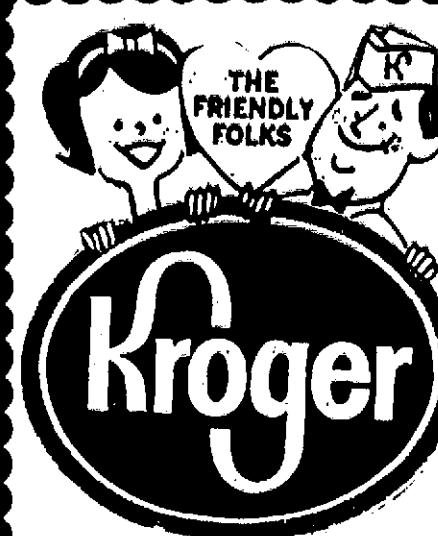

Faubus' retirement may be temporary. He has indicated an interest in running for the U.S. House or Senate, possibly against U. S. Sen. J. William Fulbright in 1968.

1958 in an unsuccessful attempt to thwart integration.

He yielded the segregationist banner to other candidates in 1960 and 1962 and last year he ordered state agencies to begin hiring qualified Negroes in key jobs. More than 200 Negroes have been hired as a result of this order.

Except in Little Rock, Faubus has not interfered in a school desegregation situation and Arkansas was a leader in desegregation even before passage of the civil rights act in 1964.

Faubus' retirement may be temporary. He has indicated an interest in running for the U.S. House or Senate, possibly against U. S. Sen. J. William Fulbright in 1968.

Judgments Reversed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court reversed lower court awards Monday to Faulkner County residents for two tracts of land that the Highway Commission took for right-of-way of Interstate 40.

The tracts involved were 10.80 acres owned by Winston and Dorothy Mattison, Ralph and Ida Mattison, Coreen Doyle and Marlee Spotsville and 8.69 acres owned by Earl and Ruby Parks.

The first group received a judgment of $8,000 and the Parks were awarded $6,000. The Highway Commission had de-posted $2,250 for the larger tract and $2,500 for the other one.

The Supreme Court ruled that the lower court erred in allowing the property owners to show the jury a subdivision plan showing how many lots could be carved from the land. It noted that the land had not been dedicated as subdivision.

The Highway Commission has been involved in several lawsuits on condemned right-of-way tracts for the highway in Faulkner County and last year halted construction briefly in protest of high jury awards to property owners.

Rubber was named by Joseph Priestley, who discovered that the gum would rub out pencil marks.

Meat Loaf Treat

by Gaynor Maddox

There's always room in any woman's kitchen notebook for a new and different meat loaf recipe. We think you'll welcome this one.

MEAT LOAF SUPREME

(Serves 8)

Filling:
1 cup fresh or canned sliced mushrooms, drained
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Meat Loaf:
1 1/2 lb. ground beef

Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees). For filling, saute mushrooms and onion in butter in medium-sized fry pan. Remove from heat.

For meat loaf, combine all ingredients thoroughly. Place half of meat mixture in shallow baking pan. Shape to form an oval base. Lengthwise down the center make a shallow "well" for the filling. Spoon filling into "well." Shape remaining meat mixture over filling, making sure all filling is covered. Seal bottom and top meat mixtures together. Bake in preheated oven (350 degrees) about 1 hour. Let stand 5 minutes before slicing.

Barbecue Sauce Gives Style To Flank Steak

A simple sauce made of tomato paste thinned with water, seasoned with Worcestershire sauce, chopped celery and onion is an ideal braising liquid for flank steak. In this case, the steaks are scored, rolled and cut into fillets, or individual servings.

There is only one flank steak available from each side of beef, says meat expert Reba Staggs. It comes from the section right below the sirloin called the flank. Flank steaks are oval, boneless steaks weighing from three-fourths to one and one-half pounds each.

Flank steaks have muscles running lengthwise. They're usually scored to cut these long muscle fibers.

Chuckwagon Supper
2 flank steaks
2 teaspoons salt
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste
1 cup water

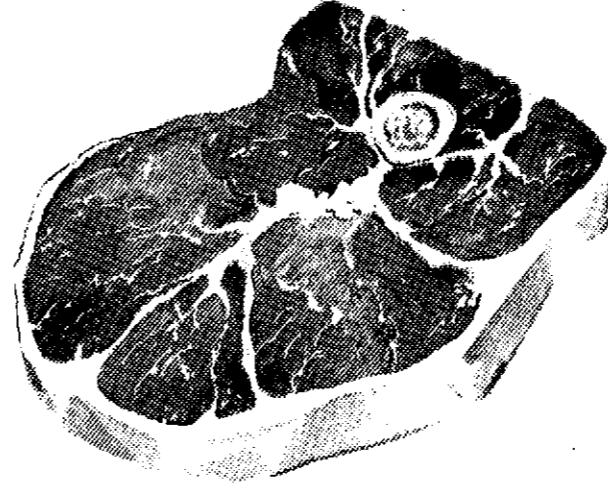

Score one side of steaks. Sprinkle scored side with 1 teaspoon salt. Roll, width-wise, as a jelly roll and fasten securely with wooden picks. Cut into individual servings about 1 1/2-inches wide. Combine flour, remaining 1 teaspoon salt and pepper. Dredge meat in seasoned flour. Brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Combine onion, celery, Worcestershire sauce, tomato paste and water. Pour over steaks. Cover tightly and cook slowly 2 hours or until meat is tender. 6 to 8 servings.

Tidbit Tasty

When you're preparing appetizers for parties consider tiny cream puffs which are filled with creamed dried beef. Prepare the puffs from regular cream puff batter, allowing a tablespoon of the batter for each puff. These may be made in advance, filled with dried beef mixture and the whole puffs heated just before serving.

Another idea uses the same-style savories when you can't find the second ingredient. Use the same cream puff batter, a mayonnaise-style dressing and a dried beef mixture. Fill the puffs with the dressing and the dried beef mixture. Prick the puffs with a fork and fill with the dried beef mixture.

A $3 Billion Industry and . . .The Men Who Make It Tick

by Helen Hennessy
Women's Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA) would not be an exaggeration to say that nearly every woman in America is influenced by one 18-block area in New York City, loosely termed "Seventh Avenue," it houses a $3 billion industry fashion.

This is a section where streets are congested, and ushers and trucks stop the city's traffic. It pulses with nervous energy and tension while it turns out the clothes we wear.

Active as a hornet's nest, this segment of New York has been described as the world's most productive 0.1 of a square mile. And the value of what it produces annually is reputed to exceed that of all the gold mined throughout the world in three years.

Not too long ago this teeming beehive consisted of privately owned companies often doing an annual volume of under $1 million. Not only is this figure higher today for many individual manufacturers but we are also seeing the Fashions pave New York streets with gold.

This is not so.

To quote one: "I buy from a number of the big companies. For everyday classics I would be lost without them."

But the ready-to-wear industry would be lost without the little guy who fools around with new ideas and can come up with one hot item that can carry the whole season."

In the main, they produce tested and true designs which are easy to wear, moderately priced and fill the racks from which most of us across the nation buy our clothes.

Because of scientific management (these giant corporations have huge rooms of computers spewing out vital information on daily transactions) and their widely diversified lines of merchandise, one would assume that the midgets in the business would have reason to fear for survival. But from the consensus of retailers who buy the goods

The little man on Seventh Avenue—the fashion innovator—has been discussed in every saga of the garment industry and characterized in every joke since the story of Suicide Abe who passed a competitor's window on his way down and called up to his brother, "Sam, cut velvet."

But what are the men like who are behind this changing face of the industry? They are a different breed, these giants in the fashion business to whom most women turn for their attire.

Among them are young, handsome men with university degrees. Some have been enterprising enough to earn their first million before they reached the age of 40.

1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

Split ladyfingers and use as many as needed to line the bottom and sides of a lightly buttered 8-inch spring-form pan.

Add sugar and vanilla extract to cream and whip until it stands in soft, stiff peaks. Fill the pan with alternate layers of whipped cream and ladyfingers, having cream as top layer.

Refrigerate overnight or 6 to 8 hours. Just before serving, remove sides from the spring-form pan and place cake on a serving plate. Garnish top and around the bottom of cake, as desired, with fresh strawberries. Serve with fresh strawberry sauce.

Try Chop Suey With Ground Beef for Ease

Ever have a yen for Chop Suey, and not have the strips of meat on hand? Don't despair because ground beef can make a delightful dish of this kind for you. It's quick, too, points out Reba Staggs, home economist.

Chinese are said never to have heard, much less devised, this. It's supposedly a strictly American innovation.

Easy Chop Suey is even more Americanized than other versions since Chinese vegetables are omitted. Onion, celery, mushrooms and cabbage characterize this dish.

Cooked rice, if desired.

Brown ground beef, onion, celery and mushrooms in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Combine cornstarch, salt, pepper, water and soy sauce. Add to meat mixture and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened.

Add cabbage and cook until vegetables are tender, about 10 minutes. Serve with hot cooked rice and additional soy sauce, if desired.
